

5-Star Client Signal Reset

Send out irresistible signals that buyers can't ignore.

Throngs of your ideal clients are already looking for you. They literally want what you're serving up... the way you serve it up.

But if your energy, message, and visibility aren't synced up, they can't find you. You've got to send out the right signal.

A signal is the energy, message, and visibility you broadcast that tells your ideal clients you're the one.

But what if you have conflicting signals that are repelling your 5-Star Clients... and you don't even realize it?

This process will help you decode the signal you're currently sending, clear the static, and send a magnetic message that calls in your 5-Star Clients.

How to Use the 5-Star Client Signal Reset:

Step 1: Spot the Static

Mixed signals push 5-Star Clients away before they even realize why. Identify where your signal may be getting scrambled, even if you're not aware you're doing it.

Here are five sneaky ways entrepreneurs accidentally repel clients:

- Messaging Mismatch: Saying one thing, but your energy says another.
- Pricing Wobble: Your fees don't match the value you project.
- Inconsistent Presence: Showing up in bursts, then disappearing.
- Over explaining: Sharing too much all at once, muddling your message or offer.
- Invisible Invitation: Hoping clients reach out instead of clearly showing them how to work with you.

Choose one journal prompt to clear the static:

- From my client's perspective, what might be unclear, confusing, or inconsistent about how I'm showing up?
- What part of my message, energy, or visibility isn't lining up with the clients I most want to attract?
- Where am I dimming my signal instead of broadcasting it boldly and clearly?
- What's diluting my magnetism and keeping my 5-Star Clients from feeling fully pulled in?
- Where am I holding back from letting my clients fully feel me?

Step 2: Decode Your Signal

Now that you've spotted the static, it's time to get crystal clear on the signal you want to send.

Your signal is the feeling, message, and vibe you want your 5-Star Clients to experience the moment they come across you.

Use these micro-prompts to uncover it:

Micro-Prompt 1: The Transformation
What's the most important shift or result my 5-Star Clients experience when they work with me?

Example: "They stop hustling and start signing clients with ease."

Micro-Prompt 2: The Feeling
How do I want my clients to feel when they interact with me or my brand?

Example: "Empowered, relaxed, and confident about their business."

Micro-Prompt 3: The Vibe Statement
If someone worked with me, how would I want them to describe the experience to a friend?

Example: "It felt effortless, inspiring, and life-changing."

Now, Bring It All Together

Combine your answers into one 5-Star Client Signal Statement, a simple, powerful sentence that captures who you help, how you help them, and the energy you bring.

This isn't a tagline or marketing slogan. It's more of an internal alignment compass, a reminder of the clear, magnetic signal you want to broadcast every time you show up.

Template:

"I help [who] [do what] so they can [result], and my energy feels [3 vibe words]."

Example:

"I help soul-led entrepreneurs attract 5-Star Clients with ease so they can scale joyfully, and my energy feels bold, magnetic, and light."

Use this statement whenever you:

- Create content or messaging
- Share an invitation to work with you
- Check if your pricing, offers, and energy are aligned
- Want a quick reset before showing up online or with clients

Think of it as your signal checkpoint: if what you're putting into the world doesn't match this vibe, adjust it.

Step 3: Send the Signal

Clarity without action doesn't magnetize clients.
It's time to step into your power and broadcast a 5-Star Signal that matches the energy you've just aligned with.

1. Get into your vibe

Read your 5-Star Client Signal Statement out loud.
Feel it in your body.
Breathe into the version of you who already attracts 5-Star Clients with ease.

2. Choose one visibility move

Pick a simple way to send your signal today, like...

- Post something bold and true on social media
- DM someone who's been on your radar about your work
- Record a quick video sharing your point of view
- Email your list with one powerful insight
- Follow up with a potential client with a heartfelt check-in

3. Embody it as you act

Before you hit publish, send, or make the call:

- Close your eyes and picture your 5-Star Clients feeling your energy and leaning in.
- Decide, and even say aloud:
  My signal always lands with the exact people who are ready for me... right now and in the near future.
- Take the action. Let go. Smile. You've got this.
